FIFTEEN CENTS

Burglar Alarm Helps Police Catch Thief

When a 17-year-old Antioch youth broke into the Upper Grade School just after midnight Sunday, he didn't realize he was setting off a burglar alarm that sounded at the police desk.

Five police officers rushed to the school and found a broken window. The teenager tried to escape through one of the doors, but was promptly confronted and arrested by Officer Harold Mason.

The police found that desk drawers in an office had been disturbed and, on the subject, they found two dental mirrors and four keys.

The youth was jailed and his parents were notified.

Where did the dental mirrors come from? That was discovered later in the morning when a maintenance man reported there had been a break-in at the Heritage Medical and Dental building at 800 Main St.

The building had been entered by breaking a window and the burglar apparently had taken $20, four keys and two mirrors from a dental lab.

Police said the 17-year-old in custody admitted breaking into the Heritage building at 11 p.m. and then proceeded to the Upper Grade School.

Vandals also were at work in the village during the weekend. A stone was thrown through the front window at the Antioch library and a picture window was broken at a home on Crest Lane.

Holbek, Olson Win Elections

Hugo Holbek and James A. Olson won the Republican precinct committeeman races that were Antioch's main topics of interest in last week's primary election.

Holbek defeated Michael J. Haley 232 to 171 in precinct 1, while Olson retained his precinct 2 job with a 193 to 96 victory over Norma Garvin Lowe. Those totals are unofficial.

Mayor Robert E. Wilton of Antioch was elected as an alternate delegate, committed to President Gerald Ford, and will thus attend the national Republican convention.

William E. Brook of Antioch was elected to a six-year term on the Regional Board of School Trustees.

In District 4 county board primaries, the Republicans nominated Harry G. Robin with 6,617 votes and Norman Geary with 5,247 votes. Wilson Brad Muse had 2,372 votes.

The Democrats picked Judith Marie Dechow with 2,541 votes and Lowell R. Lloyd with 2,313. Four others trailed.

The people of Lake County soundly rejected proposed county home rule.

At the same time, they turned down a proposed increase in the Lake County Museum tax rate.

Proposed county home rule was defeated by almost a 4-to-1 margin. The museum proposal lost 2 to 1.

Six men are seeking the two openings on the Antioch Grade School board of education.

The District 34 election will be held Saturday, Apr. 10, with the polls opening from 12 noon till 7 p.m.

The two terms expiring are those of Board President Gerald VanderMeer and Robert E. Kelley. VanderMeer is not seeking reelection, but Kelley is.

Other candidates, in addition to Kelley, are Jimmy Quedenfeld, Michael C. DeBenedetto, Robert N. Olson, Clinton T.

Glover and Howard (Sid) Parker.

The polling places, in the three precincts, are the Antioch Lower Grade School, Channel Lake school and Oakland school.

Kids Need Sponsors For Baseball Teams

Antioch's Little League and Babe Ruth League are in need of four more sponsors.

"The sponsors play an important part in keeping the registration fees down," said Bernie Gutowski, president of the baseball program. "They foot the bill for the purchase of 15 uniforms and catcher's equipment."

Gutowski said, "I am afraid that if we are not able to come up with any additional sponsors, we may have to increase our registration fees from the present $6 to as high as $20 per player."

Gutowski said the leagues are asking anyone interested in backing a team to contact him at 395-0864 for additional information.

Johnny Appleseed To Visit Schools

When Johnny Appleseed comes to Antioch late in April he will visit the seven local grade schools, talking to students and planting trees on the school grounds.

Johnny's visit to the schools is scheduled Monday, Apr. 26, according to Dave Bushing, who has arranged for Johnny's visit here.

Appleseed

It is part of the 1976 celebration being conducted by the Antioch Bicentennial Commission.

Johnny Appleseed was born 202 years ago. As a man he became an American legend by planting appleseeds throughout the Middle West. It was good fortune for the country's starving pioneers, who came across his orchards.

Johnny will arrive in Antioch on Saturday, Apr. 24. Persons who are hoping he will plant trees on their property are signing up at the two local banks. The lucky winners will be selected on Thursday, Apr. 1, and Johnny will start planting on Apr. 24.

RED, WHITE & BLUE was fitting attire worn by Chris Evans at the Lake County Courthouse in Waukegan when she was officially sworn in as a citizen of the United States. Shown with William E. Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, where she is employed, Chris took this special occasion to preview the new Bicentennial ensemble, which will be worn frequently by State Bank staff members during 1976 to commemorate the Bicentennial year. Chris married Ted Evans, member of the Libertyville police department, in Heidelberg, Germany, and entered the United States in November of 1956. The Evans reside in Antioch with sons, Michael, 10, and Dennis, 9.

Haley Praises Voters for Participation

To the Editor:

Throughout the last couple of weeks much was written about the precinct committeeman's race.

One of the questions which was asked by many people was, "what is the job of a precinct committeeman?"

I don't know if either Hugo Holbek or myself answered the question to anyone's satisfaction. However, I believe we showed our ability to perform the job of committeeman, because we were successful in fulfilling the main job of committeemen, and that is getting the people to come out and vote.

In this year, 1976, when we are celebrating 200 years of freedom, all the voters in precinct 1 of Antioch township can be proud that their precinct had the highest number of voters in the entire county.

That's right, more voters came out to vote in Antioch precinct 1 than in anyplace else in the county, including Waukegan and North Chicago. And the reason for this? I believe the reason was a contest or, to use a better word, a choice.

And I believe that's what local government is all about. Local people electing local people to serve local people.

And now, let me say thank you to all the voters for turning out in such large numbers for a primary election. And a special thank you to the people who voted for me. And, in closing, a sincere congratulations to my friend and new precinct committeeman, Hugo Holbek - a man with whom I will work with anytime for the benefit of the village and the township of Antioch.

Sincerely,
Michael J. Haley

Urges Interest In CLC Voting

On Saturday, Apr. 10, two persons will be elected to serve three-year terms as members of the College of Lake County Board of Trustees. The board has conscientiously attempted to make it convenient for citizens of the district to vote in the election. For example, polling places for the college election are the same as those used by each local high school or unit district.

Public Employees' Strikes To Increase

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

From all indications the American people are in for a greatly increased number of strikes by schoolteachers, firemen, sanitation workers, police and other public employees.

This stands to reason because of the aggressive tactics of the persons who manage the government employees' union and the success they are encountering.

A RECENT study by the U.S. Bureau of Census shows that employees of state and local governments throughout the country are joining unions in record numbers. It estimated that 51 percent of all the nation's nonfederal workers belonged to labor unions in 1975. This represents an increase of 10 percent over a similar study conducted in 1972.

Of the nearly 10 million full-time state and local government workers, more than 4.7 million were members of labor organizations, according to the Census Bureau study.

The report gave Congress the credit for much of this increase. It cited as one of the reasons for the heavy union enrollment by city, county and state workers the passage of a law permitting or requiring negotiations between government employees and employers. This has the effect of placing an official stamp of approval on the membership drive conducted by the unions involved.

AMONG THE fact turned up in the census study were these:

Firemen were the most heavily organized group with 74 percent of their full-time employees holding union cards.

Union representation among the nation's teachers reached a level of 72 percent.

Approximately 55 percent of the public employees involved with police protection were unionized; 50 percent of those occupied in sanitation departments were unionized; while hospital employees held the lowest number of organized workers at 40 percent.

IN THE YEAR ending in October, 1974, according to the study, there were 441 work stoppages in state and local governments involving 1,404,768 days of time lost.

"This is our biggest seller... it's a box of plastic toys with a small bag of cereal at the bottom."

The Town Crier

Jim Lumber stopped in Monday morning to give us a story on his surprising loss to James J. Cummings in the contest for Democratic candidate for Congress.

As he left, we said:

"Jim, thanks for coming."

"Don't say Cummings," he laughed. "Say thanks for stopping by."

NATURALLY, WE enjoyed the Antioch Reporter's story of the election. In its Thursday edition, the Reporter said that Congressman Robert McClory would be facing Lumber in the November election.

Obviously the story was written before Tuesday's votes were counted, and assuming that Lumber would win.

Embarrassing, but not as bad as the Chicago Tribune's infamous headline: "Dewey Beats Truman."

(Bad enough, though.)

NEXT MONDAY night, the 4th Light Foot Vermont Militia will enjoy Officers Mess at Dutchman's Hollow. Mess Sergeant John Doetsch is expected to put on another fantastic spread.

What this means is that Bill Brook's annual "Wild Game Dinner" for Lions Club members and their guests will have a Revolutionary War theme.

Col. Brook says grog will be served at 6:30 p.m. and mess call is 7:30 sharp.

The colonel also has planned surprise entertainment on the theory that "the sight of flowing blood and the intense excitement of combat is a very real relaxant after a heavy meal."

The "main victuals" include Turkey Belafonte, Pfc. Clarence Olson's "Grouse and Grits," Corporal Carlson's "Mallard With Marmalade," Pvt. Wilton's "Broiled Black Bear" (felled by Sgt. Haley's musket), and First Sgt. Boarini's "Mashed Moose."

WAGON DRIVER First Class John Teresi will offer his favorite recipe of "Venison Stew," and Lt. Richard Daniel has been assigned to prepare "Salad Kosciuszko."

Preliminary dishes include "Succotash Spread," by Chief Jay "Dull Knife" Dziki, and "Le Bunnie Rabbite," by Lt. Col. Homero LaPlante, a friend of Molly Pitcher, Susan B. Anthony and Samantha Leath-erbottom.

Captains Bud Scichowski and Ray Scarpelli have bayoneted Marsh Rats, so that those attending can enjoy "Shake & Bake Muskrat."

Sgt. Frank Benes will present "Possum - Green Mountain Style," since he treed four of them and is the only man in the whole company who can run swiftly through the thickest woods... and locate possum and coon.

This is only part of the menu, but we must mention the dessert: "Indian Pudding," by Surgeon General James W. Kopriva... not a bad dish, if you like ingredients such as fermented ferret-fat and dog lard.

At least that's what Commanding Col. Brook tells us.

A newspaper dedicated to people marching to their own drummers.

Jim Lumber Seeks Answer To Upset

They could not believe the early returns. "Look at these figures," some said. "The Phantom candidate is actually ahead."

But when the final vote had been tallied, the nightmare was in. The man who couldn't be beaten had lost - and to a phantom.

Thought by political experts to be headed for a cake-walk victory in the Democratic 13th Congressional race, Antioch lawyer Jim Lumber, 41, suffered a jolting loss last Tuesday to a political unknown, James J. Cummings, 48, of Barrington.

Cummings was referred to as the "phantom candidate" - a bachelor who lived with his parents, carried an unlisted phone, ignored Democratic party functions, shunned the media, and limited his campaigning largely to his three-week vacation from the state department of transportation.

But by Wednesday morning, Cummings' 14,970 to 12,142 victory jarred Democratic party leaders who claimed they had hardly heard of the man.

Shortly after the election Lumber phoned his congratulations to Cummings. "We had a cordial talk," he said, "and I expressed my personal wishes for his campaign against the incumbent Robert McClory."

Lumber said his main concern now is to thank personally the hundreds who donated their time and money to his campaign.

"I don't think I can really express in any adequate way the gratitude I feel to these people," Lumber said. "But one thing I can do - which I owe both to them and to myself - is to prove an explanation for such a result."

"The election left us confounded. Stunned. Most of the 500 or so volunteers in our campaign were new to the political process, and I know they must feel completely dismayed over such an unaccountable defeat. We'll find the answers, but it will take time," Lumber said.

Ray Marotte, Lumber's campaign manager, said of the race:

"I thought we displayed unusual vigor and spirit; it was by far one of the most energetic campaigns I'd ever seen." Marotte admitted the campaign had its shortcomings, "but we knew of them," he said, "and we were confident we could grow into a sophisticated operation by the autumn."

"We had over 500 volunteers," Lumber said. "Cummings had two. We campaigned over seven months; he worked only three weeks. Our people passed out nearly 105,000 pieces of literature on a person-to-person basis; he used only 15,000. We had endorsements from most major newspapers, labor organizations, Democratic party groups, community leaders, and many civic groups. Cummings had none. We conducted a massive door-to-door canvassing; he did not. We had good newspaper and radio coverage; Cummings had none. We operated a complete campaign headquarters while Cummings kept an unlisted phone number."

Lumber continued by saying that he was sure his post-election study would come up with the answers. "It will take time," he said, "but we will cover every aspect of the race. And until that study is completed, I'd rather not comment on our plans for the future. First, we should find out what mistakes we made and then we'll decide the best way to go."

Grade School Board To Meet

The Antioch Grade School district's board of education will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Upper Grade School.

The agenda includes consideration of a bond resolution for life safety bonds at the Lower Grade School.

Also scheduled is a report on the possibilities of an alarm system at Oakland school. Board president Gerald VanderMeer has appointed a committee to study the security system at Oakland, which recently was broken into. Vandals smashed numerous windows and trophies and, along with other destruction, the damage was estimated at well over $2,000.

At its Mar. 9 meeting the board "reluctantly accepted the resignation" of one of the Upper Grade School's teachers, Sue Campagna, who is moving to the East.

Happenings around the community

A roast beef cafeteria dinner will be served to the public by the Millburn Ladies Aid of the Millburn Congregational Church at noon Thursday, April 1, in the church dining room.

THE ANTIOCH Adventurers 4-H Club held its March meeting at the Kirschke residence. Violet Meuter presented a talk on karate, and Dave Lagerstrom presented a demonstration on how to make paper airplanes.

A tour of Commonwealth Edison in Waukegan was made on Mar. 17.

HOLY LAND films and commentary will be presented by The Church of God of Prophecy at the American Legion Hall, 254 Ida St., Antioch, Sunday at 7 p.m.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

You know, I firmly believe that Antioch has twice as much fun as any other town this size. There is always an abundance of entertainment.

Take this Saturday for example:

A good percentage of our residents will be over at the Moose Lodge for its annual Las Vegas Night bash. Even us non-Moose (and non-Meeses) are invited. The tickets are only $1 and there will be free coffee and sandwiches. The fun lasts from 8 p.m. till midnight.

MEANWHILE, over at St. Peter's social center, his many friends will be honoring Herman Holbek as Antioch's V.I.P. for 1976.

The "Bicentennial Dinner-Dance" will be a tribute to the man who founded the Antioch Rescue Squad and then served for 25 years, first as lieutenant and later as captain.

Anyone who has ever needed the rescue squad can appreciate the outstanding contribution of time and talent that Herman Holbek has made to the people of Antioch.

Bike Club Planned, First Meeting Sunday

The Antioch Community Bicycle Club will hold an organizational meeting in the Scout house, 741 Main St., on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The new club is being formed to promote cycling for all ages.

Membership applications will be available Sunday for a junior section, while the senior group will also be formed for those 14 years and older. Family memberships will be available, too.

The goals of the club are many. High on the list is the planning of various rides throughout the summer. At the same time the laws regulating the riding of bicycles on the state's roads and bicycle paths will be discussed, along with bicycle rodeos and safety checks.

Persons interested in bicycle safety should find the meeting worthwhile. The first guest will be a representative from the Antioch police department, who will discuss bicycle safety rules.

An official name for the club will be another topic.

Long-range goals of the club will be bicycle touring week-ends, charity bike-athons, bicycle rodeos, and a racing program.

Rescue Squad Has 13 Calls In 4 Days

The Antioch Rescue Squad had one of its busiest times of the year from last Thursday through Sunday, responding to 13 calls.

It raised the volunteer group's total for the year to 159 calls in 11 weeks.

As usual, most of last week's calls were for first aid and the most of the accident victims were taken to hospitals in Waukegan.

Their awards note that they are the two students who have made the most noteworthy progress toward their career goals and have shown outstanding leadership qualities through participation in campus and community activities. The CLC winners will each receive a $100 cash award and a certificate of merit. Later this month, they will compete for $250 cash awards in one of six district competitions with winners from the other 48 community colleges in the state.

Absentee Voting Rules Set

Antioch's Grade School district 34 has scheduled an election on Saturday, Apr. 10, to elect two members to the board of education.

ABC's of Travel

Domestic and International

By BARB CORBIN

Travel Agents Can Get You More For Your Money.

There is no such thing as a simple ticket. If this premise is true - and when one considers the different fares, various schedules and other variables in the travel industry, it must be true - you need a travel agent.

A travel agent can handle literally anything to do with travel - from comparatively simple arrangements like point-to-point air travel to a specially designed, elaborate trip overseas (called an FIT, Foreign Independent Travel).

And there is no additional cost to you; the agent works on commissions from the carriers and land arrangers.

The travel business has become such that even a simple ticket is not really that. There are numerous, ever-changing fares, supported by ever more complex regulations and rules that make selling an air ticket a challenge.

Just between San Francisco and Chicago, there is first class and coach fares, tour basing fares (in conjunction with pre-paid tour arrangements), first class and coach night fares, travel group charter fares, group and affinity group fares, day and night (peak and off-peak) excursion fares (called Freedom, Bicentennial, etc. by the different airlines).

Many of these excursion fares are really all the same thing; they are just given different names by different airlines. So an agent can do a great deal for a client in just selling an air ticket, for he can wade through the confusing rules (written for legal minds) to find the pertinent and cheapest fare.

When it comes to vacation planning, all of the agent's resources are called upon. He can make reservations for air flights, hotels, ships, cars, trains, sightseeing excursions, transfers, special events (such as tickets to the Spanish Riding School in Vienna).

An itinerary can be almost an artistic endeavor, for there must be a cadence and a tempo to it. There has to be time for leisure, time for activity, time for movement, time for tranquility. The agent is a planner, a coordinator, a researcher. He cannot and should not attempt to know everything, for facts change too rapidly in the travel business.

But he must know where to look up information; he must have the proper references in his office - or know where to call or write to get the data.

Remember - your local travel agent can be your right arm for ALL forms of travel at NO extra expense to you the client.

Astro- Analysis

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - The urge to make changes in current lifestyle could lead to impulsive actions which may later prove foolish. Be communicative; there's much to be gained by exchanging views with others.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - A harmonious new trend can lead to a brighter future for Taurus. Take a close look at what your personal aims are then get busy on making adjustments.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Trivial matters with superiors may become exaggerated if caution isn't used. Prevent misunderstandings by being frank yet tactful.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Present plans may be disrupted by the impulse to scatter your energies in too many directions. Be content in keeping things in an orderly routine.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - Avoid confiding in people who can't keep secrets; trust only close friends now. Your actions can easily be misinterpreted by others so keep everything strictly on the up and up.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - More is accomplished by working alone. Mate or partner is apt to contradict your present plans but go ahead with your aims. Moral support comes from neighbors and close relatives.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Resist the temptation to spend recklessly. Focus energies on some recreational project that requires less expense and avoid unnecessary shopping sprees.

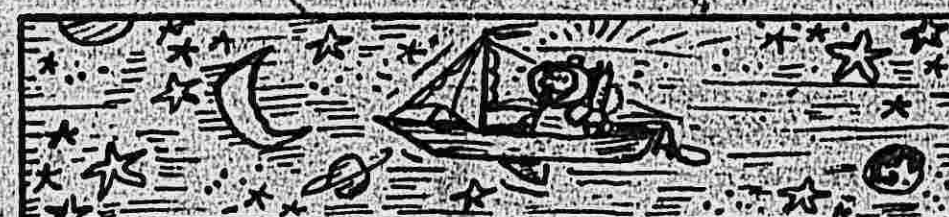

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Explosive ideas can pay off if you follow through. Ignore people who think you eccentric; much progress can be made now even if your manner is a bit unconventional.

SAGGITARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Be receptive to suggestions of business associates; a good time to consider new investments but don't make hasty moves.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - Social life becomes more enjoyable under a new trend so leave room in your schedule for interesting amusements. Avoid domestic quarrels.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Prosperity can be increased by applying those inspiring ideas toward personal financial aims. Plan expenditures carefully and don't spend foolishly on luxury items.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Contact congenials to help in promoting your personal aims. Increased popularity puts you in the spotlight now and provides ample opportunity.

That scientific term "astronaut" is rather romantic in the original Greek. Aston means star and nautes sailor, so an "astronaut" is one who sails among the stars.

Also featured are Lyn Zaehler of Antioch as Ida Rhinegold, Bruce and Barbara Berger from McHenry as Mookie Maguggins and Fleurette, Shirley Jensen of Antioch as Widow Lovelace, Sue Olsen Fisher from Fox Lake as Mrs. Asterbilt and Suzee Elliot from Round Lake as Leonie Asterbilt. Bicentennial Variety Show Begins Apr. 1 At ACHS

Antioch High School's Jazz Ensemble will present "Reflections '76" Thursday through Saturday, Apr. 1 to 3.

The ensemble's "Bicentennial Variety Show" will begin at 7:30 on each of the three evenings.

The show will be presented at the high school's auditorium. The cost is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

The high school's band director, John Olisar, said that "Reflections '76" is part of the Antioch community's celebration of the country's Bicentennial.

Because Antioch has been designated a Bicentennial town, an event is being scheduled each month. The variety show is the high school's contribution to the celebration.

Olisar said the program will reflect America's past in song and dance.

Participants will be high school students who are members of the jazz ensemble, song and dance groups, studio theatre, vocal music, the history department, audio-visual and drama students.

The Zion Park District is completing its plans for ZIP '76, Festival of Stars.

The festival will bring top entertainment artists from around the country to northeastern Illinois.

ZIP '76 will begin May 1 and 2, with an amateur ice show consisting of local skaters and a special guest attraction. Then, the ice will be removed and the arena converted into an auditorium seating capacity 3,000.

Prices range from $4, $3, $2, and $1.

Found: Entertainment At Lost Valley Lodge

With the arrival of spring, many area residents may expect Lost Valley, a new area entertainment center in Spring Grove, to have closed its doors in anticipation of another winter. However, the exact opposite is true.

Though many of the facilities are quiet now that cold weather has left, the management is introducing a host of other features and activities in an effort to make Lost Valley a year-round entertainment center. Many of the new activities center around the million-dollar lodge, with its dining and lounge facilities.

Sunday marked the beginning of Lost Valley's Champagne Brunch. The feast will be prepared weekly by Chef Lee Rausch and his staff.

This week also marked the beginning of Lost Valley's feature, "Dinners from Around the World." Patrons savored dinners and beverages from Italy, Ireland, Russia, England and Hong Kong. Prices ranged from $4.25 to $4.95. These international meals are a regular feature now, with the menu changing weekly. There is the regular Sandia Room menu to choose from as well.

Sandia Lounge offers cocktails Tuesday through Sunday. For your dancing and listening pleasure, "That's Entertainment," an 11-piece swing band, appears nightly, Tuesday through Saturday, until June 19.

The band, headquartered in Antioch, performs in the tradition of the great bands of the 1930's and 1940's, with renditions of songs like "In the Mood" and "Chattanooga Choo Choo." Dancers recall the "good ol' days" of the Big Apple and the jitterbug. Additionally, each Tuesday and Wednesday night, ladies are offered any cocktail for the depression price of 25c.

LOST VALLEY will soon add another feature to its list of activities. In conjunction with "That's Entertainment," Lost Valley will begin a weekly talent showcase for area amateurs. On Wednesdays, during the orchestra's "show set," amateurs selected during afternoon auditions will be given the opportunity to perform before the public.

Those most well-received will be invited back to perform on a Friday or Saturday evening.

Jason Williams, band leader and coordinator of the programs, said that amateurs (be they jugglers, singers, dancers, or whatever) desiring to participate are asked to leave a message for him at Lost Valley (815-675-2302) to contact them regarding auditions.

Some sights to see while in London? On a grey day, the majesty of the British House of Parliament, standing in the heart of London, seems especially important. The Thames River and Westminster Abbey, the 323-ft. Victoria Tower; the Clock Tower which houses Big Ben. On sunny days it's possible to see all sorts of castles and gardens including Compton Wynyates, a monument to the Elizabethan age. On any day, a trip to London verifies and enlivens the English tradition from which so much of America has sprung.

THE BIG CONSTRUCTION JOB underway at the intersection of Hy. 173 and Rt. 59, as most everyone knows, is the beginning of a new Ace Hardware store. Gus Costoff, one of the owners, said the new store will be much larger than Ace's current premises in the Antioch Shopping Plaza. Costoff indicated that, depending on the uncertainties that always accompany the speed of construction work, the new store might open in summer or fall. He said that, definitely, no decisions on other stores in the area will be made until the Ace Hardware building is completed.

judgement, citizen participation in the college election for the past few years could have been better. Perhaps the fact that candidates for the college board run at large from various parts of the district and, in many cases, are not well known except in their own area has contributed to the low voter turnout.

The Board of Trustees of the college is concerned about this problem. Board membership is an important responsibility and deserves the attention of all eligible voters of the district. Interested citizens should seek membership on the board and support qualified candidates.

We enlist your support in encouraging citizens of the district to become knowledgeable regarding board candidates and to urge that they support their chosen candidates by voting in the election.

If you desire information about the election, please contact Monte Kloberdanz, director of community relations, telephone 223-8601, extension 266, or President Richard Erzen.

Antioch Basketball Players Reap Honors

Scott Kimball collected most of the individual honors, and his teammates also came in for praise this week from Antioch High's basketball coach, Roger Andrews.

Kimball, who averaged 17.3 points a game, was named all-conference, all-area, all-county and honorable mention all-state.

He also was elected by the varsity squad as its most valuable player.

BOB DUBEK was honored by his teammates by being elected captain for the past season, in which the Sequoia posted a 16-9 record and finished second in the Northwest Suburban Conference with a 10-3 record. Woodstock won the title with an 11-2 mark.

Tom Gutowski also was honored by his teammates, being chosen "most improved player." Mitch Witt won the Roger Lang memorial free throw award by making 73.8 percent of his shots from the foul line.

All-conference selections, made by the league's coaches, included Kimball, Kelly Harris of Stevenson, Kevin Kelly of Grant and three Woodstock players - Nick Seichow, Ron Genot and Mike Cappaccio.

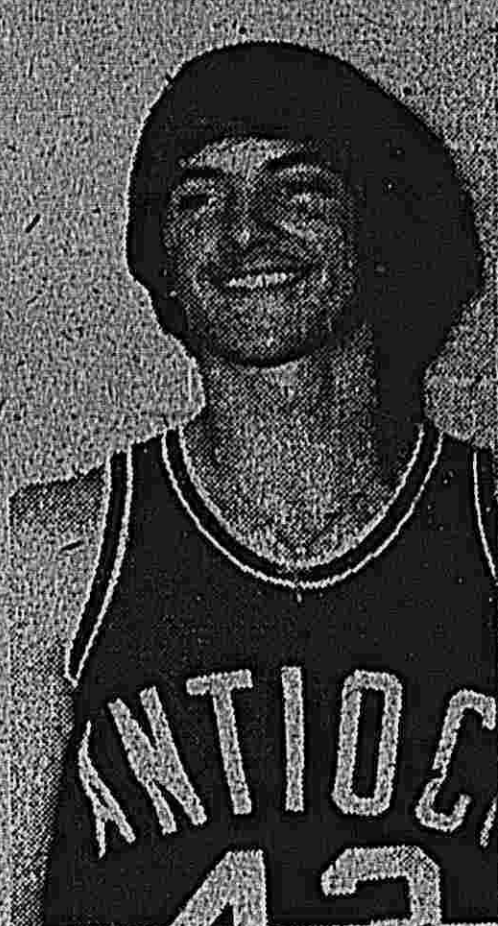

ELEVEN ANTIOCH players won major letters. They were: Kimball, Dubek, Witt, George Ferguson, Jon Bodin, Jeff Eder, Gutowski, Tom Sedar, Tom McAvoy, Tim Sheppard and Pat Houghton.

Ferguson averaged 12.7 points a game and Witt averaged 12. Ferguson, along with Kimball, was named to the all-tournament team at Barrington. Kimball made the all-tournament team in the Rockford Classic.

"This seemed to be our year for second place," said Andrews. "We took second in the Barrington tournament, second in the conference and the in the campaign.

"We should be proud of the achievements and success of this team," the coach said. "They worked under two handicaps. One was lack of experience, since we had only one regular back from last year. Also, our seniors had only three years of athletics because we had cutbacks in the program during their freshman year."

"As a coaching staff we are extremely proud of their accomplishments and success. Thanks to the players for a job well done, and may they continue to be successful in the game of life."

"THE TEAM had a real good year with several high points," Andrews said. He mentioned fine performances in the Barrington and Rockford tournaments and "a great start in the conference." The Sequoia led the league, undefeated, until they lost three tough games late

Colburn To Defend Title at Speedway

Dick Colburn, 32, who won the super-modified driving championship at Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmet last year, is set to return and defend his title in the open-competition racing that starts Saturday, Apr. 17, at 7 p.m.

Colburn, who has raced the super modifieds for the past 11 years, won 11 feature races and nine preliminary heats last year and was in the top three in qualifying on 24 nights. That means most of his wins came after working his way from the back of the starting field.

His closest rival at the end of the season was Dick St. John, Milwaukee, who finished with 646 points compared to Colburn's 908.

PERSONAL

To Jim Means

We, the undersigned, do hereby accept your challenge to a trap shoot at the Northern Illinois Conservation Club ... the losers donating $50 to the club.

Having the president of the Conservation Club, Mr. Ernie DiLabio, as the official scorekeeper will be satisfactory, although we have some doubts as to his knowledge of the sport. We do, however, know him for an honest man ... with limited capabilities on the subject of trapshooting.

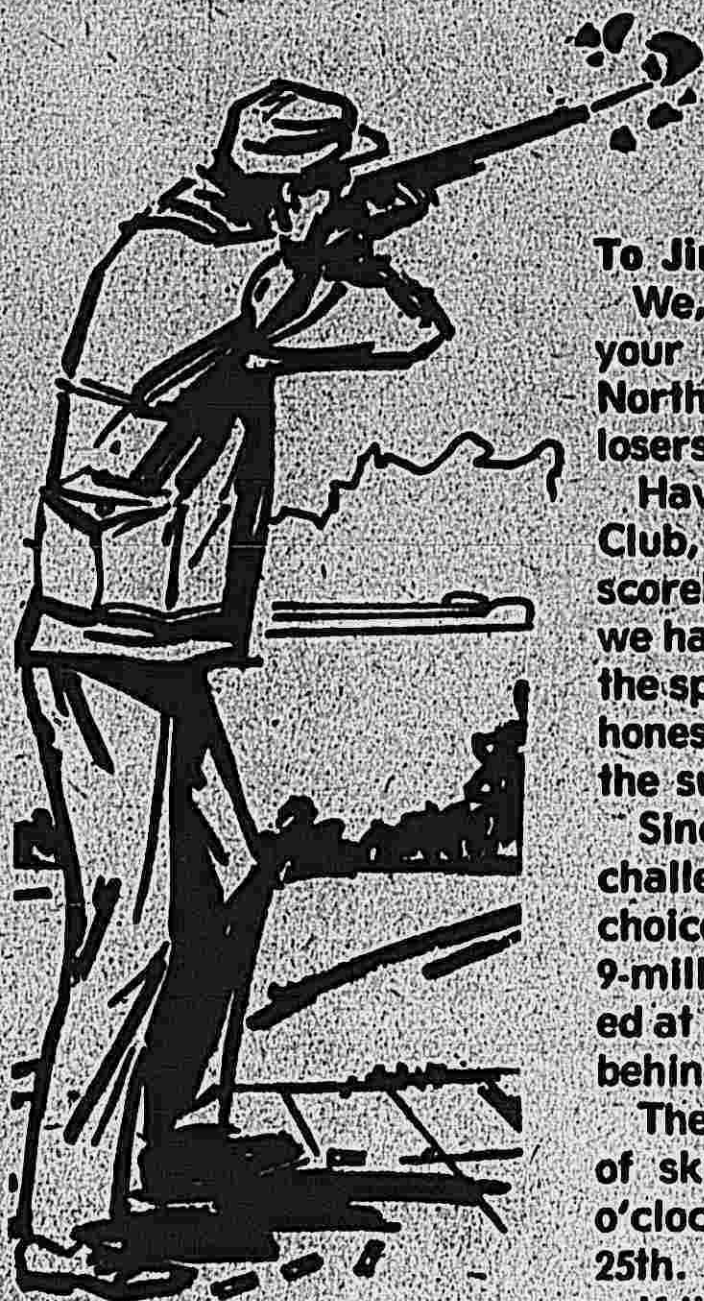

Since we are the ones who are being challenged, it is our contention that we have choice of weapons. We, therefore, choose 9-millimeter shotguns to be fired one-handed at a distance of not more than two yards behind the traphouse.

The time we choose to begin this contest of skill and marksmanship will be at 2 o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, April the 25th.

If these terms are not acceptable, we will assume you will forfeit your $50.

Yours in good sportsmanship,

How Antioch Was 'Growing Up'

By BETSY ROSSEN

20 YEARS AGO

Village history would be incomplete without noting the business and financial side of life. And so we ask, what does The Antioch News of 20 years ago have to say about dollars and sense in the lakes region?

As reported May 3, 1956, the village ended its fiscal year well in the black. Treasurer Martha Hunter informed the trustees of a total of $34,662 in all the funds, of which $17,668 was in the general fund.

Population figures were announced as 1,802. This reflected a gain of 495 since the last census in 1950, and was 159 more than the unofficial count made the previous summer.

A DRIVE to raise $200,000 to finance a church and school for the Prince of Peace Catholic parish at Lake Villa began May 27. The effort was under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. David Lynch, and the chairman Lester Hamlin.

The parish was formed in July, 1955, when the number of school children threatened to become too great for St. Peter's school at Antioch and St. Gilbert's school at Graylake to handle.

Meanwhile in Antioch, ground-breaking ceremonies were held for the $150,000 convent building which was designed to provide housing for sisters teaching at St. Peter's grade school. On hand for the event were Sister George Ellen, Rev. Francis Johnson, Rev. Alfred Henderson, Barney Naber, Edmund Vos, Charles Cermak and Ivan Fredericksen.

REAL ESTATE and construction costs tell the tale, "What a difference 20 years can make!"

A construction company advertised: deluxe six-room Californian home, $11,675 plus site; five-room and garage face brick and redwood home, $10,675 plus site; and three-bedroom all brick ranch home, $10,795 plus site.

Following the advice of N.H. Engle and Sons Co. that they prepare to take over the management of their subdivision, Lindenhurst Estates residents met May 26 and appointed a committee to study organization. The group considered both incorporation and formation of a civic association.

Morton Engle told the 200 homeowners that his company expected to complete the sale of lots that summer, but planned to continue building houses for seven or eight years. The company gave the subdivision ground near the water tower for use as a community baseball diamond.

IN TAKING over control of the Scout house June 5, the Antioch village board extended a vote of appreciation along with a stipend for her care and supervision of the building, to Louise Kaufmann. Arrangements for the use of the house were thereafter made through Clerk Clarence Shultis and a man hired to take care of the building and grounds.

In concluding her report, Mrs. Kaufmann suggested that "the place be listed in the phone book as the Antioch Scout Home - not Boy Scout Home. There are many more girl scouts using the building than there are boy scouts."

Later that month, Saturday night was omitted as a night on which parking meters had to be "fed." A survey conducted by the Chamber of Commerce showed that of 40 merchants interviewed, 32 were opposed to charges on Saturday night, one was in favor, and seven noncommittal.

The merchants complained that the meter charges on a night when the main stores were not open was confusing to many, especially those who attend the movies and were angered when they got a parking tickets.

State Department of Health examiners at a mid-June inspection declared that the new Aqua-Center swimming pool was tops in their opinions. "We have inspected larger pools," they said, "but this is the best job we have ever seen."

And so the village grew.

Antioch Girls Win 3 More Cage Contests

On Monday, Mar. 15, Antioch High's girls basketball team played at Round Lake and came away with a split of two games.

The Jayvees had difficulty putting points on the board. High scorer was Cathy Aschbacher with 6. The final score was 29-17 with Round Lake the winner.

The varsity started strong again, scoring 28 points in the first half and coasting to a 36-27 victory. Michele Blanchette scored 10, Sharon Kurzin 8 and LuAnn Oddsen and Kim Case, 6 each.

Last Saturday the Jayvees returned to their winning ways, beating Lake Zurich 23-21. Chief scoring was provided by Cathy Aschbacher with 8 and Sherry Weitz with 5.

"Nancy Fucela played an outstanding game on defense and contributed many rebounds to the cause. Maria Grippando did well on defense and had many assists," their coaches said.

Led by LuAnn Oddsen with 16 and Kim Case with 10, the varsity won 38-24.

"Especially fine work was turned in by Debbie Popp and Amy Ploss, playing fine defensive games. Constant pressure kept Lake Zurich off balance and caused them to have extreme difficulty moving the ball," Antioch's coaches said.

The next home game is Thursday against Grant.

"I assure you, sir, nobody's handed in a black belt."

Two money-saving tips for homeowners

Too many homeowners have outdated insurance on their property.

So a fire, a storm, vandals or burglars can destroy or steal more than your insurance covers.

With the cost of construction and repairs going up fast, it pays to update your homeowners coverage now.

It'll pay you to check with your Country Companies agent, too. Because in most cases, he can give you the coverage you want for less with a Country Mutual homeowners policy.

Lake Geneva Stars Race Again Apr. 10

Two of the three stock car champions from last year will return to the Lake Geneva Raceway Saturday night, Apr. 10, for the 1976 opener.

Late model stock car champion Al Schill, Franklin, (Wis.), who won his 1975 driving title in a 1975 Camaro, will be going for his third Lake Geneva Raceway championship in a 1976 Rally Sport Camaro. He won an earlier championship in the super modifieds.

Roger Meyer, Columbus, (Wis.), will return in his 1965

Chevelle, which earned him 13 wins last year.

Others returning in the late models are Larry Hicks, Lake Geneva, in a Dodge Challenger; Jack Ester, Antioch; Joe Mistretta, Fox Lake, and Terry Blakeley, Lake Geneva, in Camaros.

Toft Auto Racing of Antioch will again be managing the Lake Geneva Raceway and will introduce a new class of open wheel "mini-Indy" cars on Saturday night, May 8.

MINI CARS have been booked for Lake Geneva Raceway. Ray Toft (standing at right), one of the new owners of the Raceway, said 40 of the small cars will be introduced at the track on Saturday night, May 8. They are powered by snowmobile engines and capable of speeds reached by late model stock cars. Seated in the car is Denny McKay of Elgin and next to Mr. Toft is Ed Mecum Jr., who along with McKay is building and marketing the cars in this area. Toft and Joe Pechulis of Lake Villa bought the Lake Geneva Raceway earlier this week and will begin the season with late model stocks and sportsman stock cars on Saturday night, Apr. 10.

Spring Grove Gets 100,000 Coho Salmon

An unexpected surplus of coho salmon "frys" in Michigan fish hatcheries may prove a boon to Illinois fishermen.

A tank truck has delivered 100,000 of the 3-month-old salmon to the Department of Conservation's Spring Grove Hatchery.

Only chinook salmon have been raised by the department because chinook can be released after only six months as compared to 18 months for coho.

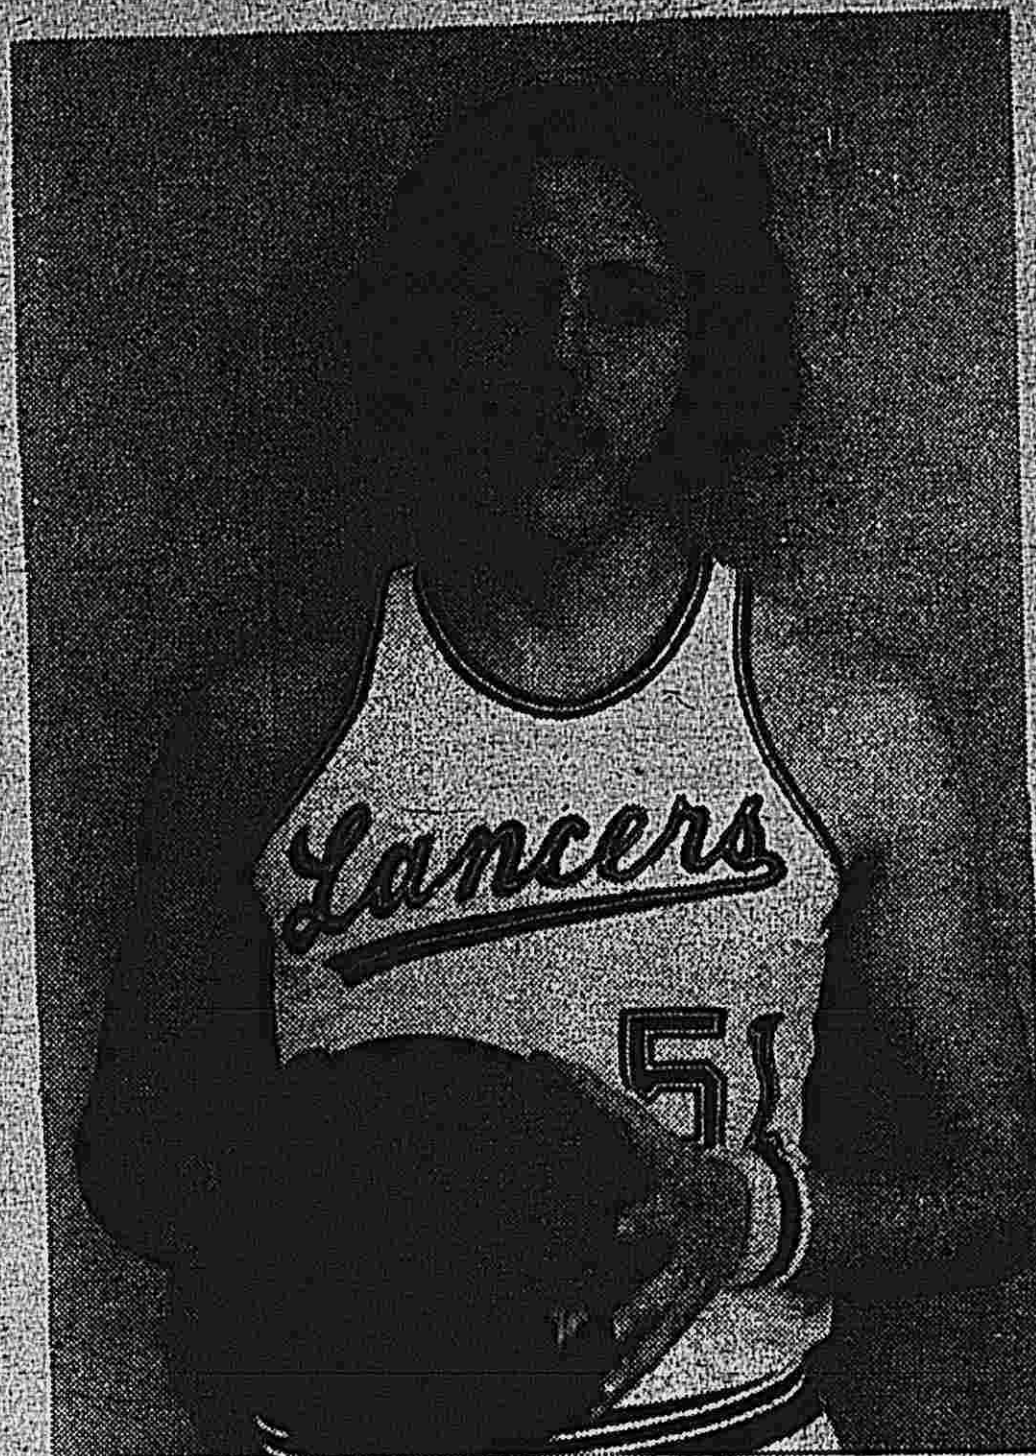

The limited water supply at Spring Grove would permit only about 8,000 coho to be raised under ideal conditions. At the time of their release coho require about 10 times the water volume as chinook because the harder chinook can be released when they are younger and smaller.

The chance at obtaining 100,000 free fish spurred hatchery supervisor Robert Lent toward devising an experimental program for raising the coho. Lent will consider his program a success, he said, if he can get 75 percent of the coho to survive to the stocking stage.

Lent's plan for raising the coho is to put them in outdoor trout ponds until the current crop of 200,000 chinook is removed from the hatchery's indoor tanks for stocking in May. Those chinook will be released at several sites along Illinois' lakefront.

During May, the coho "frys," which are now only two inches long, will be put in indoor tanks where the water temperature can be kept near 60 degrees and the water contains plenty of oxygen.

The coho will be stocked in the spring of 1977 once they reach the 5-inch fingerling stage. Most of them should reach the 10-inch limit within a year, and be ready for Illinois fishermen's hooks and lines.

COLLEGE STAR NOW - Pat Michalak, of Antioch, led the College of Lake County basketball team this season in scoring and rebounding. He was awarded a second team berth on the Illinois Community College All-State squad as well as Skyway Conference first team honors. The 6'5" sophomore, who will take his talents to a four-year college next year, averaged 22 points and 13 rebounds a game.

Baseball Program Sign-Ups Are Set
